

This specialist further education programme is designed as a starting point for students with profound, complex needs and multiple disabilities who require an integrated therapy approach and often medical support within the curriculum.

We welcome individuals with profound

Hedleys

College

Communication and Choices

